Galatians 2:20

A Ministry For and With Those 18-25 Years of Age

I Trust You God, But...

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:6-7

I recently read a book that had a chapter dedicated to the subject of worry in a Christian's life. What follows is an overview of that chapter.

It happened again. We have all been there. We try not to look at the clock, but every so often we just cannot resist: 1:00 a.m. We calculate in our minds precisely how much sleep we would get if we fell asleep right now. What seems like a few minutes later, a glance again: 2:30 a.m. We calculate again how much sleep we would get if we fell asleep right now.

I wish I could tell you that most of us were laying there in bed praying, meditating on scripture, or simply basking in God's presence. But we are not. We are laying there tossing, turning, sweating drenched in worry.

We know we're not supposed to worry. We try not to worry, but sometimes it's hard. Worrying is bad for our health. In fact, our word worry derives from the German word wurgen, which literally means "to strangle, constrict, or choke." That sounds like worry feels, doesn't it?

Many of us try to minimize worry or we use different euphemisms to mask it: "I'm concerned about something." "I have some issues I'm working through." or "I have something on my mind."

No matter what you call it, worry is sin. In Philippians 4:6, Paul tells us not to be anxious about anything. Romans 14:23 says, "Everything that does not come from faith is sin." That's pretty clear. Worry is the opposite of faith therefore, it's sin. Worry, in essence, is the sin of distrusting the promises and power of God. Worry indicates we're not willing to let God handle certain things—at least not in His way, and certainly not in His time.

So how do we start to gain freedom from worry? First, we must turn to the Word of God. Philippians 4:6-7 tells us, "Don't worry about anything." And it doesn't just tell us what not to do. It tells us what to do as well. "Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank Him for all He has done. If we do this, we will experience God's peace, which is far more wonderful than the mind can understand. His peace will guard our hearts and minds as we live in Christ Jesus. Worry then becomes a signal alerting us that it's time to pray.

Second, we must learn to trust God's plan and His timing. God is far more patient than we are. He has eternity, so He's in no hurry. Listen to His promise: "I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper and not to harm you, plans to give you a hope and a future. We must learn to trust God even if the His plan and timing isn't the one we would choose.

It won't be easy to overcome worry, but once you have walked with God and experienced His faithfulness time and again, you can actually stop worrying.

I challenge you to live in God's promises and in a way that demonstrates your confidence in Him. After all, He is wise, He is willing, and He is able to free us from worry.

In Christ,

Bro. John

Chuck Eavenson

Mobile Mission Opportunity July 18- 21

Carrolls Creek Baptist please pray for the youth as we team up with Grace Table Church in Mobile, Alabama to reach families and students for God’s Glory. I visited Tyler and Heather recently and we went to several sites where the church is planning to have a neighborhood party to invite families and children to come have fun and learn more about Grace Table Church. I am so excited for what God is going to do and am praying that God will send a huge crowd to the gathering. We are planning to leave CCBC on July 18th at 8am. The only cost will be for meals and 25.00 dollars for free time money. The youth budget will cover four of the meals and the youth can bring approx. $100.00 for eight meals. The youth are staying at the Grace Table ministry center building. Youth will need to bring the following items: sleeping bag, or sheets for a twin size airbed, pillow, blankets, towels, washcloths, toiletry items, several changes of clothes, swimsuits, and their own personalized snacks and drinks. Sunday we are planning to stay for the worship service at Grace Table then drive home after lunch. We should arrive back at CCBC around 5:30pm.

Carrolls Creek Baptist Family Outreach Event September 22nd 5pm

Carrolls Creek and the men’s outreach group are looking forward to an amazing opportunity to have Hank Parker, a legend in the fishing and hunting world, to our church for the next Sportsmen’s Family Dinner. Hank Parker will share a powerful testimony of God’s Grace and Mercy that will challenge and encourage all ages. The date for this event will be September 22nd at 5pm. We are anticipating a higher-than-normal turnout. To ensure we have enough food and seats, we will require registration to guarantee food and seating.

Would you like to be a part of blessing hundreds of people on September 22nd?

We are looking to bless hundreds of people that will visit our church on September 22nd in numerous ways, through an uplifting and fun family event including excellent food, powerful testimony, free items, and giveaways. To help provide for this, we need the help of the CCBC family. If you would like to donate or help with this event, please see Chuck Eavenson as soon as possible. Please also consider praying for this event regularly, as we desire to bring Glory to God in everything we do and to see lives changed now and for eternity.

*“I will sing of the Lord’s great love forever; with my mouth I will make your faithfulness known through all generations.”
Psalm 89:1.*

There’s a song years ago that says, “It always makes a difference when Jesus passes by.” The same is true in our corporate worship service each week. We must always seek to invite the presence of the Lord to come and speak to our hearts. It will make a difference when He shows up. We must be desperate for His presence.
