Grow

It has been said, "The church is the hope of the world." Some sincere and well-meaning Christians push back, explaining that technically, Jesus is the hope of the world. While I'll never argue against the importance of the risen Son of God, I believe strongly in the power of Jesus through the church. After all, the church is the body of Christ. Jesus manifested Himself through the church. The church is not a place we go. The church is who we are. And we are chosen and called by Go to be light in the darkness and to give hope to the hopeless. Pastor Craig Groeschel

A Prayer For Our Church

Heavenly Father, thank you for every spiritual leader who loves your bride, the church. I pray, God, that you will give each pastor, each leader, each volunteer a renewed love for the gospel, an overwhelming burden for those who don't know Jesus, and as unstoppable passion to unleash the power of the church to transform the world.

Build the faith of each person, because I know you want to do more in them and through them than they ever believed possible. Silence the distracting and discouraging voice of the enemy. Quench the lies that Immobilize your spiritual army. Burn away spiritual apathy with a fire for holiness, truth, and transformed lives.

Replace our apathy with passion from heaven. Transform fear into a burning faith. Renew our love for those who don't know Jesus. Empower your church to meet the needs of the broken. Bring dead churches back to life with your resurrection power.

When the world grows darker, help the light of your church to grow brighter.

All that the world might know Jesus and glorify you, Father.

In Jesus' name, amen.

Chuck Eavenson

*"Let no one despise you for your youth, but set for the believers an example in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity."
