We exist to glorify God
by making disciples and loving our community.

CCBC Family,

Have you ever tried to walk up or down stairs in the dark and anticipated a step being there when it wasn't? I know I have. It's a strange feeling, almost like you're falling. Your heart sinks a little bit until you gather yourself and realize what you've done.

Often in church life, we can take our next steps for granted.

Many of us know that the first steps of salvation are admitting that we are sinners, believing that Jesus is the Son of God who came to die as a sacrifice for our sin and rose three days later. Then, we know to confess that Jesus is Lord of our lives and repent and turn from our sins.

After salvation comes baptism. Baptism is the first act of obedience for a Christian who boldly and publicly identifies with the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Being immersed in water symbolizes our death and burial, the coming out of the water symbolizes our new life with Christ, washed free from sin.

After someone is saved and baptized, they are can join a local church as a member and experience the joy of having a church family to help disciple them and encourage their faith. Someone might buy them a Bible and encourage them to read it. Someone else might tell them about prayer, and remind them how awesome it is that God desires to hear from us. Hopefully, the new believer joins a Sunday School class or a midweek group and learn what it means to faithfully follow God!

But none of us ever wake up one day and become the "perfect Christian." We always have room to grow. There's always a next step for the believer!

Our goal at Carrolls Creek is to reach the people of our community with the gospel of Jesus Christ. There are many in our community who need to take that first step of faith.

But what about the believer who's new to the community and wants a church family to be a part of? What about the faithful church member who feels led to serve God in a new way? There are next steps for them too! Every believer has been gifted by the Holy Spirit to serve the local church and help accomplish the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ!

On Sunday June 28, immediately after our worship service, we will have a Next Steps Fellowship Lunch. During this time, we will communicate the areas our church we would love for you to serve in! Whether you've been serving for years, or you're new to CCBC and interested to see where you can get plugged in, come find your next step to serve!

I would love to see you there!
